CAFB helps guard get ready

Tech. Sgt. Jim Moser Public affairs

The Columbus AFB Dental Clinic staff put in some late nights to support the Mississippi National Guard mobilization Jan. 29 to 30.

More than 30 guardsmen from the 223rd Engineer Battalion in West Point, Miss., visited the clinic during a two-day period to be cleared for active duty.

"This was a short-notice activation and deployment for this unit," said Tech. Sgt. Kevin Rogers, dental services NCOIC. "They were given approximately one week to get ready for deployment.

"The 36 individuals treated here may not have been able to deploy had their problems not been taken care

"The entire dental element stood up for the challenge," said Dr. (Lt. Col.) Harvey Kelley, 14th Medical Operations Squadron commander. "We proposed the endeavor as a volunteer opportunity, knowing it would be involving long hours and non-stop work.

"Everyone jumped on board with enthusiasm," Kelley said. "Those tasked with other duties such as First Term Airman's Center and honor guard returned to the clinic to provide assistance. During the long hours and hard work, the atmosphere was light and upbeat for staff and patients alike."

The dental clinic isn't the only unit hard at work helping the guardsmen get ready to deploy.

Tech. Sgt. Kathy Stansberry, allergy/immunization technician for the 14th Medical Group, said over the past few weeks she reviewed more than 90 shot records and gave more than 140 shots to deploying guardsmen.

The dental clinic also enlisted the support of the clinic pharmacy to provide after hours prescription sup-

The family support center also offers services to the

"The center offers a wide variety of programs to support Reserve and National Guard soldiers that have been activated," said Tech. Sgt. Jamey Coleman, family readiness NCO.

All the hard work and effort from the BLAZE team will pay some dividends back to the wing as about 30 different guardsmen will be assigned to Columbus AFB for the next two years.

See GUARD, Page 3

The 14th Security Forces Squadron guards the NASA Space Shuttle Columbia during its visit June 1991. This was one of three times the Columbia stopped at Columbus AFB.

Lost astronauts, shuttle visited CAFB

astronauts lost when the Space the crew. Shuttle Columbia apparently broke apart at 9 a.m. Eastern Standard Time Saturday in the area over north traveling at approximately 12,500 central Texas.

Col. Rick Husband was the mission commander and Lt. Col. Michael Anderson was the payload commander.

"While we are deeply saddened by this tragic loss, we are also very proud of the Air Force team that has tirelessly assisted in the response to this national tragedy," said Gen. John Jumper, Air Force chief of staff, and James Roche, Secretary of the Air Force.

The shuttle was preparing to land

Force officers were among the seven Control in Houston lost contact with gency simulation training recently.

The space vehicle was at an altitude of about 203,000 feet and was procedures," said Hud Hudnall miles per hour, or Mach 18, when contact was lost.

Other members of the crew included Cmdr. William McCool, pilot for STS-107; Navy Capt. David Brown, mission specialist; Dr. Kalpana Chawla, flight engineer and simulator instructors from LSI. mission specialist; Cmdr. Laurel Clark, mission specialist; and Israeli specialist.

space program.

at the Kennedy Space Center in bers attended training at Columbus Coslett contributed to this article.)

SAN ANTONIO — Two Air Florida when NASA's Mission AFB to accomplish annual T-38 emer-

"NASA headquarters lacks the ability to complete T-38 emergency Lear Siegler Service Incorporated. simulator instructor. "We have been training NASA crewmembers for

The shuttle crews practice the procedures in a one-and-a-half hour T-38 simulator flight with local contractor

"NASA crews that come here are a cut above the rest," Hudnall air force Col. Ilan Ramon, payload said. "But at the same time they are not too good to talk to you and Columbus AFB has close tie to the are truly ambassadors for America." (Courtesy of Air Force Some of the Columbia crewmem- Print News. Second Lt. Joseph

Students graduated in FY03: 89

NEWS 2 Silver Wings Feb. 7, 2003

Air Force extends current, upcoming deployments

Master Sgt. Rick Burnham Air Force Print News

WASHINGTON — Currently and soon-to-be deployed airmen will remain deployed longer than the previously targeted three-month rotation, Air Force Chief of Staff Gen. John P. Jumper announced Jan. 28 in a message to all airmen. The change was made to meet the needs of combatant commanders.

Senior Airman Amanda Mills, deployed from the 14th Flying Training Wing public affairs office, takes photos on the flight line at a forward-deployed location in support of Operation Enduring Freedom.

Specifically, active-duty and mobilized reserve component airmen deployed with Air and Space Expeditionary Forces 7 and 8 and those deploying under these new taskings ordered by Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld notice, Jumper said in the message.

"[This is] a time when it's important for the military to show its strength, and I know every person who's able to defend our country is needed," said Senior Airman Amanda Mills, Columbus AFB public affairs at a forward-deployed location. "I'm very proud to be a part of that defense."

Airmen in some "stressed" career fields have already been extended beyond three months.

The need for additional forces is part of a buildup of air power in Southwest Asia, ready to achieve national security objectives if directed by the president.

"We must interrupt our normal three-month AEF rotation cycle because the resources in a single AEF pair can month AEF battle rhythm." no longer satisfy the needs of our combatant commands," Jumper said.

the amount of time many airmen are forward deployed. But, he added, it is a necessary move and one he feels everything, Jumper said. will be taken in stride by airmen everywhere.

every airman understands we have been called upon once Jumper said. "But we need to remember that the AEF again by our nation," he said. "Our success as an Air structure also allows us to posture for a full range of Force depends on how we prepare for and execute oper- combat operations, including major theater contingencies

Jumper's words echoed those in a message sent by AEF pair on a three-month rotation.' Rumsfeld the same day to people in the Department of

"In recent weeks and months, the president has called the world's attention to Saddam Hussein's regime in Iraq," Rumsfeld said. "He has rallied the United Nations the uncertainty longer deployments may create for those and freedoms."

in uniform, the civilians who work beside them, and their families. Rumsfeld said.

"Be assured that the president will not decide to commit forces unless conditions require it, and only as a last resort," Rumsfeld said. "Should action be necessary, you Dec. 24 should anticipate remaining in place until further will have what you need to carry out the missions

> Jumper said every effort will be made to relieve those deployed in a way that accommodates mission require-

"I assure you that we will continue to assess the evolving situation and develop rotation plans which seek to relieve our forces in the most equitable fashion while still meeting combatant commanders' warfighting requirements," he said. "Although AEF rotation timing will change, we will make every effort to preserve the AEF sequence which will give us the ability to sustain our operations over the long term.

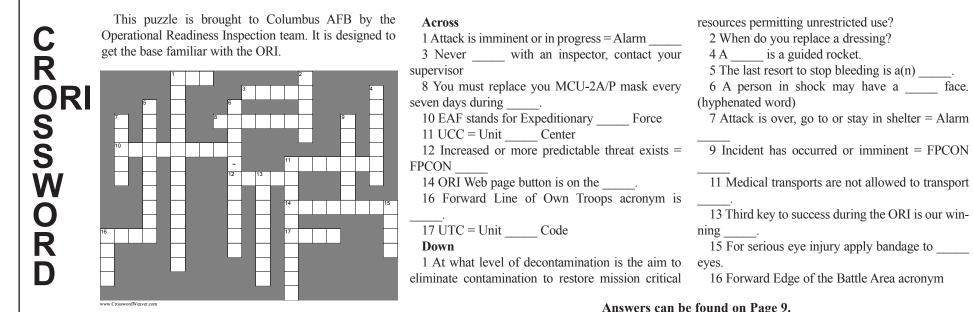

"When able, we will return to a more normalized three-

Although that rhythm is intended to provide airmen and their families with a predictable schedule for deploy-The general said that the change would likely increase ments, resulting in a more normal lifestyle, an implicit understanding is that increased operations tempo changes

"Sustaining on-going requirements with three-month "I know this is a lot to ask, and I am confident that rotations has become part of our Air Force culture," that require more forces than can be provided by one

> It is a national security matter, he said, one in which the efforts of the entire Air Force team will be needed.

"I have never been (more proud) of our Air Force and of the great men and women that bring America's resolve to the doorsteps of those who would seek to inflict harm to enforce its resolutions calling for the regime's disar- upon us and our allies," he said. "I know you are all equal to the task, and I look forward to seeing our great Air In light of these developments, DOD leaders recognize Force continue to successfully defend American values

V-day fundraiser

The Company Grade Officer Council begins a fundraiser Monday, which runs through Feb. 14.

People can make a donation of $1 to guess how many candy pieces are in a

The person who guesses correctly or comes the closest wins the jar of candy, plus 50 percent of the donations collected.

Volunteers are needed from the flying training squadrons.

For more information or to volunteer, call Ext. 2781.

Single parents' group

The "Parents on the Move" meeting is at 11 a.m. Tuesday in the Happy Lounge at the Columbus Club. Parents are asked to bring bagged lunches.

For more information, call Ext. 2790.

New hours

The 14th Medical Group clinic support staff closes from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. Thursdays and reopens from 4:30 to 5 p.m. effective Thursday for training.

The support staff includes laboratory, radiology and pharmacy.

For more information about the new hours, call Ext. 2168.

GUARD (Continued from Page 1)

"It is great for the U. S. Army to step up and help support force protection missions on Air Force installations, this is just one more example of how well our military services work together," said Maj. Leonard Grassley, 14th Security Forces Squadron commander.

"We have had Air Force reservists assigned to Columbus AFB for a while now, and its time for them to get back to their families and jobs," Grassley said. "With the support of the Army guardsmen, we can continue to ensure the same level of force protection for the base while also supporting Air Force mobility commitments."

While at Columbus AFB, the guardsmen will perform security, entry control and force protection duties.

Grassley said the U.S. Army is attempting to keep the activated guardsmen in their home state to ease long-haul deployment effects.

"All of the base agencies are in full support of the guardsmen," Grassley said. "We are treating them exactly as we would any Air Force member being assigned to Columbus AFB."

(Editor's note: For more information about what the FSC can provide for deployed guardsmen families, call Senior Airman Kerri Clapsadle and Capt. Trey Labella, 14th Medical Operations Squadron, perform dental work on Army Spc. Darryl Dilworth Jr., 223rd Engineer Battalion, West Point, Miss.

New command chief takes charge of AETC

an who has served as a command chief master sergeant at a mand chief master sergeant of Air Education and Training people who follow." Command recently.

Chief Master Sgt. Karl Meyers replaced Chief Master Sgt. William Milligan, who retired Jan. 31 after serving as AETC command chief master sergeant since February 2000.

The command chief master sergeant, as the top enlisted Force. person in the command, advises the AETC commander and senior staff on the morale, welfare and effective use of more than 34,000 enlisted people who conduct the recruiting, training and education missions worldwide. He also serves as command chief master sergeant for more than 350,000 enlist- The Blue," he said. ed students trained per year in AETC.

Prior to assuming his current position, Meyers was 2nd Air Force command chief master sergeant at Keesler AFB, Miss., from June 2001 to January of this year. Second Air Force conducts the basic military and technical training missions for

Before that assignment, he was command chief master sergeant for the 325th Fighter Wing at Tyndall AFB, Fla., from March 1999 to June 2001.

The chief brings a simple approach to his new position that has served him well since his initial duty assignment in early 1978 as an aerospace control and warning system operator.

"When I go into any job, my initial goal is to do the best I the next job or the next assignment. I always think about what wing and numbered air force assumed the position of com- I can do today to make my job and the Air Force better for the

In following that philosophy, the chief said his primary focus would be to help ensure the command's mission runs as smoothly as possible so that AETC can provide professional airman to sustain the combat capability of America's Air

"My initial focus is to help make AETC, as the First Command, the best experience it can be in our mission of recruiting, training and educating young men and women from the hometowns of America who choose to 'Cross Into

In his first few months on the job, the chief said he will be getting more familiar with the command's education and flying training missions.

This month, for example, he will travel to Maxwell AFB, Ala., to learn more about the education programs conducted by Air University, such as the Community College of the Air Force and College for Enlisted Professional Military Education. He will also visit Luke AFB, Ariz., to get more familiar with the F-16 training mission there.

"These base visits along with others being worked will help me get a better feel for the command's flying training and education missions and the issues affecting them," Meyers said. "Having come from 2nd Air Force, I don't have can," said the native of Utica, N.Y. "I hope that our airmen are any immediate plans to visit our technical training bases in

RANDOLPH AFB, Texas — A 25-year Air Force veter-thinking the same way. I don't go into the job thinking about the first few months, but I'll make it around to them again as

His message to the enlisted members of the command is to make the Air Force core values — integrity, service before self, excellence in all we do — the foundation of their every-

"I've tried to live by the core values my whole career even though we didn't have them labeled as such when I was coming up through the ranks," he said. "If everybody adheres to our core values, little can go wrong with our entire Air Force

The chief entered the Air Force through the U.S. Air Force Basic Military Training School in November 1977. He graduated from the aerospace control and warning system operator course at Keesler AFB, Miss., in March 1978 and completed satellite orbital analysis training at Peterson AFB, Colo., a month later.

He has held positions in the Southern, European and North Atlantic theaters of operation.

His operational background includes working with ballistic missile early warning and satellite tracking systems; ground tactical air control systems; modular control equipment; and semi-automatic ground environment systems. Meyers has held positions at a regional operational control center, NATO command and control center and on the training staff at a numbered air force.

The chief has also served as an Air Force advisor to the Air National Guard. (Courtesy of AETC News Service.)

Silver Wings

Teamwork is key to continued BLAZE team success

COMMENTARY

Maj. Cephas Franklin 14th CS commander

Many of you watched two of America's best football teams, the Oakland Raiders and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers play in the pinnacle game for their organization, Superbowl XXXVII. While the Buccaneers won, each team achieved a milestone 34 other teams began the year trying to do. The difference is the 54 players on these teams excelled, subordinating their personal interests for the good of their organizations. Each player possessed certain skills that, when combined with those of other players, created a synergistic effect allowing their organization to succeed.

Webster defines teamwork as, "A joint action by a group of people in which individual interests are subordinated to group unity and efficiency." The actions by this group must be a coordinated effort. Every wing unit has a unique mission with set boundaries, that when coordinated with those of the other units, allows the wing to succeed. The same type of teamwork that worked for the two football teams is working for the BLAZE team.

In the past, the 14th Flying Training Wing excelled in executing its mission to produce the world's best pilots. As a matter of fact, the BLAZE team produced approximately 350 pilots, 33 percent of Air Force pilot production, each of the last few years. The wing achieved the goals established by Air Education and Training Command. Additionally, the wing excelled in operational readiness inspections by garnering "excellent" overall ratings. Teamwork's been the foundation for this success.

At this moment, the teamwork demonstrated by this wing can be seen at the Golden Triangle Regional Airport. Organizations across the wing worked together to acquire a mobile control tower to support the BLAZE mission while the inside runway is closed for repairs. As a result of this teamwork, the impact of the runway closure project to the mission will be minimal.

In less than 30 days, the AETC inspector general team will visit. They are coming to assess our ability to train the world's best pilots, respond in times of crisis and provide agile combat support. My prediction is the team will blaze through with flying colors. I am as confident in my prediction as I am in the support team 14th Comm provides this wing. The 14th Comm is but one organization on the BLAZE team. While our mission is important, it's one of many on the team that enables the BLAZE mission. As the coach of Team Comm, our mission is simple — exploit communications and information technology to provide voice, data network and air traffic and landing systems services in support of the BLAZE mission. Customer service is our number one priority — force enhancement is the goal.

So as operational readiness inspection preparations continue, let's not forget the key ingredient that paved the way for past accomplishments — teamwork. Whether military, civilian or contractor— every unit or agency possesses individuals with skills vital to the BLAZE mission As individuals, we become needles in a haystack. As a group, we become diamonds in the rough. Therefore, it takes each of us working together to blaze the trail. Teamwork across the wing remains the key component to success.

STRAIGHT TALK LINE

uestion: My concern is that our fitness center cannot adequately support the demands of our population. In particular, the cardiovascular equipment and allotted space for the equipment in my opinion is insufficient. I have left the facility numerous times early evening without a workout or an inadequate workout because of overcrowding. Has there been any consideration given to expanding the fitness center to better accommodate the needs of its customers?

nswer: I appreciate your interest in improving our fitness center and agree the space in the facility and around our equipment is Limited. A $10.2 million military construction project for our fitness center is at Air Staff. It's currently listed number 33 on the Air Force Fitness Center Master Construction Plan, but it is not yet funded. The new design will increase current space by over 3,000 square meters. We will continue to pursue funding for this facility. You also probably noticed the fitness center recently received over $79,000 in new equipment. We already converted two racquetball courts to install the new equipment and we plan to relocate additional equipment to the aerobics room to allow for even more space. Finally, I encourage every member of the BLAZE team to exercise regularly — it will improve your life.

Col. Steve Schmidt

Airman 1st Class Jennifer Anilao, 14th Communication Squadron radio maintainer, tells Col. Steve Schmidt, 14th Flying Training Wing commander, about the mis-14th Flying Training Wing commander sion of the radio maintenance shop.

The Straight Talk Line is your direct line to the commander for comments and suggestions on how to make Columbus AFB better. Although the Straight Talk Line is always available, the best way to resolve problems is through the chain of command.

The Straight Talk Line phone number is 434-7058. Callers should leave their full name and phone number to receive an answer. All names are kept confidential. Messages are answered in the Silver Wings without names.

Written questions may also be brought to the public affairs office in the wing headquarters building, Bldg. 724. People can also access the Straight Talk program through the BLAZEWEB at https://columbusweb and the main website at www.columbus.af.mil. Questions and answers will be edited for brevity.

SILVER WINGS

Published by the Commercial Dispatch Publishing Company, Inc., a private firm in no way connected with the U.S. Air Force, under exclusive written contract with the 14th Flying Training Wing. This commercial enterprise Air Force newspaper is an authorized publication for members of the U.S. military services. Contents of the Silver Wings are not necessarily the official views of, or endorsed by, the U.S. government, the Department of Defense or the Department of the Air Force.

The appearance of advertising in this publication does not constitute endorsement by the DOD, the Department of the Air Force or Columbus, Miss., phone 328-2427. All editori-

Service Publications, Inc., of the products or

Everything advertised in this publication shall be made available for purchase, use or patronage without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, marital status, physical handicap, political affiliation or any other non-merit factor of the purchaser, user or

Editorial content is edited, prepared and provided by the 14th FTW public affairs office of Columbus AFB, Miss.

All photos are U.S. Air Force photos unless

All advertising should be submitted to the Commercial Dispatch, advertising department, al copy should be submitted to the public affairs office, Bldg. 724, Columbus AFB, Miss., phone 434-7069, or e-mailed to silverwings@columbus.af. mil by 2 p.m. Friday. The Silver Wings staff reserves the right to edit or rewrite all copy submitted when necessary.

Silver Wings Editorial Staff 14th FTW commander Col. Steve Schmidt

Chief, public affairs Pam Warnken Editor

Airman Alexis Lloyd

Key phone numbers

Chaplain	434-250
Civil Engineer Service Desk	434-285
Civilian Personnel	434-263
Clinic:
Family Practice	434-217
Appointment Desk	434-227
After Hours Care	434-227
Columbus Club
Commissary	434-710
inance
lousing Maintenance	434-737
nspector General
egal Office	434-703
lilitary Equal Opportunity	434-259
Security Forces	434-712
Shoppette
••

Columbus AFB celebrates Black History Month

National African-American History Month Proclamation

African Americans have played central roles in some of the most triumphant and courageous moments in our Nation's history. During National African-American History Month, we honor the rich heritage of African Americans and pay tribute to their many contributions to our Nation. As we celebrate this year's theme, "The Souls of Black Folk: Centennial Reflections," we remember the successes and challenges of our past. We also resolve to honor the achievements and legacy of these proud citizens by continuing to improve our society so that it fully lives up to our founding ideals.

In 1915, Dr. Carter Godwin Woodson recognized the need for our country to gain a more complete and informed understanding of our past. He founded the association for the Study of Negro Life and History and established the first Negro History Week to emphasize that "We have a wonderful history behind us . . . Through the pioneering efforts of Dr. Woodson and the hard work of the Association, this observance officially became Black History Month in

For generations, African Americans have strengthened our Nation by urging reforms, overcoming obstacles and breaking down barriers. We see the greatness of America in those who have risen above injustice and enriched our society, a greatness reflected in the resolve of Jackie Robinson, the intellect of W.E.B. DuBois, and the talent of Louis Armstrong. We also gain a deeper appreciation for the African-American experience in the writings of James Baldwin, Ralph Ellison, and Zora Neal Hurston, as well as in the music of Mahalia Jackson, Billie Holiday, Duke Ellington, and countless others.

African Americans reflect a proud legacy of courage and dedication that has helped to guide our Nation's success and prosperity. Visionary leaders like Frederick Douglass, Thurgood Marshall, and Martin Luther King, Jr., possessed a clarity of purpose and were instrumental in exposing and addressing the issues that threatened our founding principles. The battle for freedom, equality, and opportunity was fought on the front lines by strong figures such as Harriet Tubman and Fannie Lou Hamer, as well as many other everyday heroes who helped to lead this Nation to a more hopeful and

As we recall these remarkable individuals, we also recognize that, despite our progress, racial prejudice still exists in America. As a Nation and as individuals, we must be vigilant in responding to discrimination wherever we find it. By promoting diversity, understanding, and opportunity, we will continue our efforts to build a society where every person, of every race, can realize the promise of America.

This month, I encourage all citizens to gain awareness of and appreciation for African-American history. As we remember this important part of our Nation's past, we look to a bright future, recognizing the potential of an America united in purpose, guided by spirit, and dedicated to equality.

> George W. Bush President of the United States of America

Reflect, continue observance daily

Christine Cannedy

14th Mission Support Group

As we embark on this important occasion to observe Black History Month, we should reflect on the extraordinary events about people who have emerged as a vital part of this melting pot called America.

We should also celebrate the richness of language, music, different foods, dances, rituals, religions and family values that have enhanced the lives of all

It has been stated that those who fail to remember the past are destined to repeat it. Black History Month observances provide us the opportunity to remember the many important challenges and struggles that have brought us much closer together.

This closeness is shown in many areas and the numerous contributions that African-American inventors, educators, military people, political leaders, attorneys, doctors, along with various other careers and professions throughout our nation.

We should continue breaking down barriers, reinventing ourselves and becoming advocates for an environment suitable for all people.

Attaining success and being ever vigilant of duties and responsibilities we have here in the United States

As an educator, I feel it is important for us to mentor and empower our nation's youth to pass on the torch of excellence, we need models on every career level, providing opportunities for youth to succeed and give Collaborating and working together as a team reinforces our commitment to press forward as one.

Join us in celebrating Black History Month Information is available on the BLAZEWEB, check out the marquees, look for flyers and read the Silver Wings to spot upcoming events.

Black History Month Spotlight

Senior Master Sgt. Renee McCollum 43rd Flying Training Squadron

How has the integration of African Americans in the military impacted the Air Force?: Strength is in unity. It started with the desegregation of the Army Air Force's only all-black fighter group the Tuskagee Airmen. African Americans have conclusively demonstrated that we could perform as well as any race and have always wanted to be part of the team. Our impact in the Air Force is of great significance because as a united group we can function as proud Americans in the military.

Cultural Trivia

- 1. Carter G. Woodson instituted Negro History Week. What new name was it given in 1976?
- 2. Who was the 1st African American chariman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff?
- 3. Name the scientist whose research led to an efficient method of storing large quantities of blood plasma in "blood banks."
- 4. Who was the first African-American woman to host a nationally syndicated TV talk

Answers on bottom of page

What's going on this month

- ☐ Channel 64 runs educational movies during the month
- ☐ Airman's Dining facility prepares lunchtime soul food meals Feb. 5 and Feb. 26 and a southern meal
- ☐ A Black History Month celebration is from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Feb. 22 at the chapel. The multicultural committee invites everyone to celebrate the rich culture of African Americans. Various displays of art, books and clothing are shown. Food tasting events, poetry reading, singing by the Columbus Mississippi Black Voices and Miracle Temple choirs and a rhythmic "Step Show" are also available. There will be games and prizes for children.

For more information, call Ext. 2788 or Ext. 3576.

Answers: 1. Black History Month 2. Gen. Colin Powell 3. Charles Drew in the 1930s 4. Oprah Winfrey

AT THE CHAPEL

Chapel schedule Catholic

Sunday activities:

9:15 a.m. — Mass 10:30 a.m. — CCD

5 p.m. — Confessions 5:30 p.m. — Mass

Wednesday

11:30 a.m. — Mass

Protestant

Sunday activities:

9 a.m. — Sunday school 10:45 a.m. — Traditional worship 1 p.m. — Contemporary worship Wednesdays

5:30 p.m. — Video Bible study supper 7:15 p.m. — Choir rehearsal

Thursdays

11:30 a.m. — Lunch Bible study

For Islamic, Jewish, Orthodox or other services, call the chapel at Ext. 2500.

AT THE MOVIES

All movies are shown at 7 p.m., unless otherwise noted, at the base theater.

"The Wild Thornberrys" (PG, some adventure peril, 86 min.) Animated.

Saturday

"Lord of the Rings: The Two Towers" (PG-13, images of violence, 179 min.) Starring Elijah Wood.

Feb. 14

"Catch Me If You Can" (PG-13, some sexual content and brief language, 140 min.)

Starring Leonardo DiCaprio.

CHANNEL 64

BLAZE 64 offers announcements for people living in base housing or the dormitories.

Call 2nd Lt. Joseph Coslett for more information at Ext. 7065.

Weekdays

9 a.m., noon and 2 p.m. Air Force Television News Monday through Feb. 14 9:30 a.m., 12:30 p.m. and 2:30 p.m. College Level Examination Program:

English Composition

FAMILY SUPPORT

(Editor's note: All activities are offered at the family support center unless otherwise specified. For more information, call Ext. 2790.)

Job workshop: A job skills identification workshop is from 9 to 10 a.m. Feb. 18 to help people learn what kind of jobs are best suited for them.

Workshop: A Microsoft Excel beginners' workshop is from 9 to 10:30 a.m. Feb 25

The seating is limited, and people must register in advance.

Education grant: The deadline to apply for the Gen. Henry H. Arnold Education Grant is March 14.

The $1,500 grant is available to eligible family members of active duty, reservists on extended active duty, Title 32 full-time active duty, retired, retired reservists with 20 years or more, activeduty service and spouses of deceased Air Force people.

Call Shirley Pinkney for an applica-

Fam-Link: Occasional newsletters are sent to people's homes about special base events and things happening in the local

To subscribe to this free newsletter, send an e-mail to FSC@columbus.af.mil.

BASE Notes

OSC scholarship: The Columbus Officers' Spouses' Club offers scholarships to graduating high school seniors, spouses and current college students.

Every high school applicant must be a dependent of an active duty or retired military member associated with Columbus AFB.

Continuing education applicants may program is wine tasting. be the spouse or child of an active duty, retired, deceased or missing in action military member.

Obtain an application at the base education center, family support center, or high school or college guidance office.

Roses for V-day

Kristen Waldrop, officers' spouses' club member, arranges roses. The officers' spouses' club sells roses for Valentine's Day, and the deadline for orders is Wednesday. Cost is $30 per dozen or $18 per half dozen. Proceeds benefit club charities. To order call 434-8398, 434-6376 or 434-6297.

Any questions call Christy Milner at 240-1695 or email christy.milner@col umbus.af.mil. Application deadline is group begins at 10 a.m. Tuesday at the

This is a weekly playgroup for ages 18 months to 3 years and their parents. For more information, call Birgit Coslett at

Prayer luncheon: The National Prayer Luncheon is at 11:30 a.m. Feb. 13 at the Columbus Club.

The event features Chaplain (Lt. Col.) Robert Bruno, Air Force Special Operations Command chaplain. Tickets are $5 for E-1 through E-4 and $10 for everyone else. For reservations, call Ext. 2500 or stored in its original container. see a first sergeant.

Officers' spouses' social: The Columbus AFB Officers' Spouses' Club's social is at 6:30 p.m. Feb. 18. The call Ext. 3546.

The menu is heavy hor d'oeuvres for $10. Columbus Club members receive a safety newsletter, forms and other pertiare welcome. For reservations, call 434- Visit https://www.columbus.af.mil/BLA 5511 or e-mail: davidjeastman@cable ZEWEB/safetyweb/Safety%20Web/Mai

ESC scholarships: The enlisted spouses' club offers scholarships for graduating high school seniors, current college students, spouses and active-duty people.

Applicants must be the dependent child Playgroup: A Mommy and Me play- or spouse of an active-duty, retired or deceased or missing in action person.

Applications are at the education center, family support center or high school guidance offices.

Deadline to apply is March 1. For more information, call 434-5849.

Family housing: An amendment has been added to the family housing

It is residents of military family housing may store a quantity not exceeding 20 pounds of smokeless-black powder in their residence. The product must be

Storage is authorized only in an outside room or shed.

It should be stored separately from fuels and solvents. For more information,

New safety Web site: Safety posts the $2 discount. New members and spouses nent information for safety programs. n%20Page2.htm.

SERVICES SNAPSHOTS Silver Wings

Club members can win free vacations worth $3,500

Pam Wickham Marketing director

Four club members can win a free vacation from the Air Education and Training Command's appreciation program, which ends March 31.

The winners work with the information, ticket and travel office to design a custom vacation worth $3,500, which covers when and where they want to go and the costs of any air travel, hotel, rental cars and admission fees to parks and

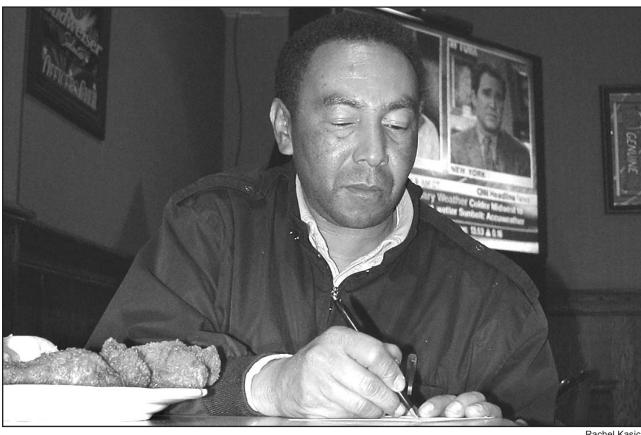

"Being an AETC club member this winter is one of the smartest decisions you can make," said Bob Carlberg, AETC headquarters services program chief. "Our command appreciates those people who are club members, and we are providing four fantastic vacation packages to award to eligible Club members receive entry forms for every $2 food purchase at the Columbus Club during lunch. They will also receive five entry forms when they spend $5 or more on food at the American Café Fridays.

However, club members don't need to make a purchase to obtain an entry form. They may make a color sketch of the Air Force Club logo from their club bill and bring it to a Columbus Club cashier. Only one sketch can be turned in per day, and copies or computer-generated logos won't be

By entering into the grand prize drawing, club members are also eligible to win one of the weekly drawings, which include free lunches, dinners and $100 in cash.

"This promotion is just another great bonus for club members," said Ed Nunn, Columbus Club manager. "Club membership has always been the cornerstone of club operations. Clubs are traditionally as strong as their membership in terms of numbers and involvement. We want to take this time to show our members how much we appreciate them."

Robert McChriston, Magnolia Inn supply technician, fills out an entry form for a chance to win a free vacation.

Services also offers a membership night at 5 p.m.

"This membership night will feature Monte Carlo games, program, call Ext. 2337.

prizes and free food and beverages," said Louella Anderson, 14th Services Division chief. "It promises to be a great

For more information about the premier vacation package

Services offers choices for everyone at Columbus AFB

Club's American Cafe opens from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. Fridays and is open to all ranks. Club members receive a $2 discount on each meal. Entrees include but aren't limited to chicken Monterey, charbroiled New York strip steak, and grilled pork chops Omaha. Call Ext. 2489.

All ranks bingo: Games begin at 6 p.m. Fridays in the community center ballroom. People play five $75 regular games, one $125 odd and even coverall game and a $1,000 progressive jackpot game. Consolation prize is $150 if the jackpot does Wednesday. Call Ext. 2281.

American Cafe open: The Columbus not go in 52 numbers or less. Admission fees for nonmembers are $5. Call Ext. 2489.

> features music from all genres from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. today in the enlisted lounge. Call Ext. at the door or at the information, ticket and Star Casino in Philadelphia, Miss.

Veterinary clinic special: During February the veterinary clinic offers a special on their heartworm tests and heartworm

Monday and from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Ambassadors basketball game begins at 7 p.m. Thursday at the Columbus High Variety night: Disc Jockey Kool Kleve Gymnasium. Cost is $4 each and children 6 and under are free. Tickets may be purchased travel office. Call Ext. 2337.

NAF auction: Services offers a nonappropriated fund auction of furniture, commercial kitchen equipment and more starting at 10 a.m. Feb. 14 for base personnel. Office hours are from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Another auction is at 11 a.m. Feb. 19 at out-

Viewing of equipment is available from vices are available. Call Ext. 2934.

Harlem Ambassadors: The Harlem 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Feb. 18 and prior to the auction Feb. 19. Call Ext. 2505.

> Casino trip: The information, ticket and travel office offers a trip Feb. 21 to the Silver

> Cost is $15 per person, and it includes transportation and $15 in coins. The bus departs at 5:30 p.m. and returns at approximately 2:30 a.m. Call Ext. 7858.

> Library open house: The base library offers an open house from 5 to 7:30 p.m. Feb. 20 to orient base people on what ser-

Check out the Services website at www.cafbgrapevine.com

Columbus Club Lunch Buffet

Served from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. — $7.95 per person — Club members receive $2 discount — Cost includes vegetable, tossed salad and beverage — A la carte menu is also available

Today Fried catfish Stuffed crab Cherry cobbler

Fried chicken Pork Join Banana pudding

Tuesday Chicken fried steak Sausage & peppers Peach cobbler

Wednesday Lasagna Baked fish Assorted cakes

Thursday All new soup, salad and potato AROUND TOWN

Magnolia Film Festival: The sixth annu- Comedy of Errors" at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 24 education programs for people of all al independent film festival is from 7 p.m. to and Feb. 25. at McComas Hall at ages. Mississippi State University.

11 p.m. today and from noon to 10 p.m.

Saturday at the Starkville Cinema on

Admission is $5 today and $10

Backwoods Romeo: A three-act comedy, "Backwoods Romeo," by the First Baptist Church Youth Drama Ministry at

The dinner theater is produced with

Tickets are $12.50 for adults and $6 for

Comedy of Errors: The National children under 12. For more information,

Saturday. For more information, call

Highway 12.

(662) 494-5836.

call 327-6098.

Baker's Plays of Boston

citizens and $6 for children under 12. For 328-8727. more information, call (662) 325-4201

Columbus auction: A Columbus Arts Council Auction is at 6 p.m. March 1 at the Trotter Convention Center. The theme is "Hooray for Hollywood."

People are encouraged to dress like the Trotter Convention Center Feb. 14. their favorite movie star. Awards are given for the best, original and authentic costumes in several categories.

Tickets are $50 per person. The cost includes dinner with entertainment in a combination of a stage show, a one-act play and old movie clips.

Shakespeare Company presents "The auction. Proceeds help fund arts and art 327-2686.

Tickets are on sale at the Rosenzweig Tickets are $10 for adults, $8 for senior Arts Center. For more information, call

> Tops in Blue: Air Force premier entertainment showcase for the entire family begins at 3 p.m. March 2 at the Joe Cook

It brings music, dance and comedy all performed by men and women in blue who perform 90 minutes of non-stop live entertainment. The show is free and open to the public. For more information, call

Pilgrimage: The spring pre-Civil War home tours begin April 1 and runs There will be a silent auction and a live through April 14. For a free brochure, call MSU hotline: Spring is fast approaching and Mississippi State University offers a toll-free horticulture hotline to help gardeners get lawns under control and plant beautiful gardens. Master gardeners can help answer questions ranging from basic lawn problems to creating a butterfly garden. The hotline number is (888) 920-4678.

Silver Wings Feb. 7, 2003

SPORTS 12 Silver Wings Feb. 7, 2003

Team MSS beat 14th MDG in close game, 54-53

2nd Lt. Joseph Coslett Public affairs

The 14th Medical Group lost 54-53 in a tight game against the 14th Mission Support Squadron in intramural basketball action Monday.

Stephen Hart, MDG coach, went through a ritualistic practice before the game with his team. He discussed the game plan to blow the 14th MSS out of the water.

"Let's take this game fellas," Hart said.

forfeit the game due to a lack of players.

However, six players made the court hastily changing into their uniforms for action.

The missed warm-up time showed because the MSS trailed 33-28 with five minutes left in the half.

Late in the first half, the MSS found their groove and 39. started to close the gap.

Hart called a time out. "Come on fellas, we're giving easy points up on the paint," he yelled. Hart told them to reach. be patient on offense and tighten up defense.

For the rest of the half the MDG was solid, while the MSS looked worn down.

During the half-time break the MSS reviewed its plan to close the game in their favor.

"We are driving the ball to the hole, but we are not The MSS barely made the deadline before having to blocking out the rebound," said Jon-Michael Bridgeman, MSS player.

> The MSS moved to a zone defense and switched to ing two more buckets to win 54-53. man coverage if the zone wasn't sufficient.

struggle with few baskets, but MDG remained ahead 45-

Midway through the second half, MSS stepped-up, found some buried energy, and brought the game within

"I'm just trying to keep them hyped," said Jerry Trimble, MSS player. "Defense is keeping us in the

The frustrations were felt on the Med Group side as MSS cut their lead to a one point to 51-50 score.

"Come on fellas, we're getting hung out there," Hart said during a time out.

The game ended with the MSS digging out and scor-

"We came out cold, then we jelled and it was like one The first 10 minutes of the second half was a defense heart beat out there," said Moe Bedell, MSS player.

SHORTS

I got it, I got it

Mark Baroni, 14th Flying Training Wing, plays racquetball at the fitness and sports center. For information on services available at the center, call Ext. 2772.

Intramural volleyball coming soon to Columbus AFB. For more information or to sign up, people should call their squadron sports representative.

Recreation league

The deadline to register for recreational soccer league is Monday.

The league is for BLAZE and military ID card holders ages 18 and up. More than 50 people have already signed up. Everyone is split up into four groups with equal coverage of beginners and advance soccer players.

For more information, call Ext. 2772 or visit www.geocities.com/ columbusfutbol/.

Spring soccer

Deadline for registering indoor soccer for ages 3 and up is Feb. 14 at the youth center.

Cost is $25 for members and $35 for nonmembers.

Volunteer coaches are needed to support this program. Season's scheduled to begin in March.

Players must have current physical on file or obtain one before the start of the program.

Players who register after the deadline are charged a late fee. Call

	Team	Wins	Losses
Basketball standings The following are the intramural league	OSS	9	2
	DynCorp	10	3
	37th/41st FTS	7	3
	14th MSS	8	4
	48th FTS	6	3
standings as of	14th COM	6	6
Wednesday.	50th FTS	3	7
	14th MDG	3	10
	14th SFS	0	14

Bowling standings Wins Team Losses Misfits 112 The following 40 14th OSS 54 are the intramural Strokin 58 Thursday leagues SFS #1 58 94 standings as of 56 48th FTS 96 Jan. 30. 32 SFS #2 120